SEASTONES—Adding Ovals to Your Copperplate

Saturday, January 9, 2016 from 9:30 am-5pm
Carlo Ditta Meeting Room
1445 Mac Arthur Avenue, Harvey

Over many years of intense study local calligrapher, Maria Helena Hoksch, has developed her own way of using ovals to enhance her copperplate lettering. She calls this style Seastones. Please join us as Maria Helena guides us in exploring this lovely style, turning a lettered page into a beach covered with polished pebbles. We will then apply the Seastone script to addressing envelopes. Lined guide sheets will be provided. Prior knowledge of any pointed pen script is useful but not essential. For those who don't feel comfortable with pointed pen, you may work with fine tip markers or sharp pencils.

Payment in full due by January 5th, 2015.
